PUEBLO DRAW

MEETINGS BY THE MINUTE

August 7, 2013

Meeting was called to order at 7:15 by Tom Grace. Sign ups for August 10th Horsetooth tournament were accepted.

Results of the July 13th night tournament at Pueblo were announced and the top four places belonged to Casey Welch, Oscar Pearson, Justin Stomberg and Howard Wong.

Casey Welch gave a presentation on his winning Pueblo tactic which was fishing swim jigs in very colored water on the west end of the lake. Casey reported throwing his jig on the bank or as close as possible and bringing it back mostly with a steady retrieve. "Nothing fancy, just start reeling." His swimming jig was tipped with a Berkely swimbait, threaded upside down on the jig to present the dark side down, assuming the fish were coming from underneath the bait and having a better contrast with that rig. Casey passed some of his jigs around the room for club members to see. (Two unnamed members were seen fondling them.)

Curtis Welch gave an update on the recent Juniors outing at Donovan's Pond and thanked the members who were able to provide boats for the kids. Of course the members don't need much coaxing when it comes to volunteering for Donovan's. Curtis also thanked Jack Chaney (not present) for his donation of new and near-new fishing tackle that was scarfed up by the Juniors.

Tom mentioned that the Rapala purchase program is still available but pricing had changed across the board. Tom also received two Berkely boga-type scales from Jeff Jones for members to try out. The most recent batch of Berkely digital scales have presented some issues with consistency and reliability and hopefully we can isolate those few problem scales.

Partners were drawn for the Horsetooth tournament. Twenty six members entered the draw and two boaters were drawn as the final pair and had to flip for boat choice.

Herb Turner did not "tell you what!".
